To William Plumer, governor of N. H.

[Washington.] Has regularly sent him public documents which he thought would be acceptable. Realizes that the resolution of Congress to publish all such correspondence would supersede the intention of his son, and so has taken no further steps. Defends his stand in the question of the constitutional power of Congress in regard to internal improvement. Comments on the position of Russian representatives. Believes that Pinckney was driven home more because of a lack of funds than from the rigorous climate. Reports that relations with Spain are critical, the more so since the recent events in Florida.

There is a question whether the claim is dead after so long a time or whether the land could have been sold unredeemably for taxes. A.L.S. 4p. 8 x 6 3/4 in.
